Terms and conditions

Unlike many sports, golf is played, for the most part, without the supervision of a referee or umpire. The game relies on the integrity of the individual to show consideration for other players and to abide by the Rules. All players should conduct themselves in a disciplined manner, demonstrating courtesy and sportsmanship at all times, irrespective of how competitive they may be. This is the spirit of the game of golf.

1. Golf for Life is being conducted in support of "Swanwick Relay for Life". Officers of Swanwick Relay for Life or the organisers of Golf for Life accept no liability for injury to persons or damage to property arising from participation in this event however caused.
2. All golfers are strongly advised to have their own insurance to protect themselves from any liability that may occur from accidents on the golf course.
3. The organisers reserve the right to cancel the event or change the event details without notice. In the unlikely event of a cancellation, participants will be offered an alternative date or refund of any money paid.
4. Refunds may be given in the event of cancellation, although these may be subject to an administration fee. If cancellations occur within 4 weeks of the event, refunds will only be given if the place can subsequently be filled.
5. Entries to the event should be made on an official application form, by post or email, to the address shown. If entering by email, please also indicate how payment is to be made.
6. Start times will be allocated and communicated to participants approximately one week before the event. Playing partners will also be allocated. If entering as a group, please note the name(s) of any persons you wish to play with. PLEASE NOTE: While the organisers will endeavor to place participants in their desired groups, this may not always be possible. In this case, the organiser's decision will be final.
7. All entries shall be subject to the approval of the organisers, who reserve the right to accept or refuse, or, having accepted, subsequently to reject any entry without giving any reason for the decision.
8. In the event of any dispute, the decision of the event organiser is final.
9. Golf for Life reserve the right to amend these terms and conditions as necessary.
